

Thursday 12 February 2015

GP Session Management of faecal incontinence and constipation

1600 – 1615	WELCOME
1615 – 1745	Anatomical correlates of pelvic floor disorders and clinical assessment (ODS, FI) Mr Richard Perry (Colorectal Surgeon) Dynamic pelvic floor – MRI – imaging the cause! Dr Adrian Balasingham (Radiologist) Medication relating to FI and UI and constipation Clare Greasley (Pharmacist) Dietary Management Jasna Robinson-Wright (Dietitian)
1745 - 1800	NETWORKING
1800 – 1930	CDHB research project: Incontinence pad use in rest homes Dot Milne (Registered Nurse) Physiotherapy Strategies Maree Frost (Physiotherapist) Biofeedback Dr Ingo Kolossa (Colorectal Surgeon) Sacral Nerve Stimulation Professor Klaus Matzel (General and Colorectal Surgeon, Germany) New artificial sphincter devices Professor Paul-Antoine Lehur (Colorectal Surgeon, France) Operative procedures of the pelvic floor Mr Richard Perry (Colorectal Surgeon)
1930 – 2000	Panel Discussion
	SOCIAL GET TOGETHER An opportunity to meet the Symposium delegates

"The International Pelvic Floor Symposium has been endorsed by The Royal New Zealand College of General Practitioners (RNZCGP) and has been approved for one credit per hour up to maximum of 14 credits CME for General Practice Educational Programme Stage 2 (GPEP2) and Maintenance of Professional Standards (MOPS) purposes."

as at 27 November 2014